

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
WESTERN DIVISION
No. 5:17-CR-95-1D

United States of America,

v.

Michael Marshall,

Defendant.

Order

At his initial appearance Defendant Michael Marshall, acting pro se, informed the court that he wished to waive his detention hearing. The defendant executed a written waiver form confirming this request. The court has questioned the defendant and determined that the defendant's waiver of the detention hearing was knowingly and voluntarily made.

Based upon the defendant's waiver, the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required and the safety of any other person and the community pending the defendant's trial.

Therefore, the United States' motion for detention is granted and it is ordered that:

1. The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
2. The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and
3. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
